Equipment

Scenery / Moveable Equipment

All equipment, scenery and props must be carried into position and carried from the field. There is an exception for equipment, scenery or props that are equipped with big air tires that are sufficient to carry the weight of the equipment. This equipment may be rolled onto and from the field provided that the grass is not damaged in any way. In case of any damage the Corps will be held responsible and any claims regarding the damage will be forwarded to the Corps. Items used in the Pit Area must also use big air tyres otherwise they may need to be lifted and dependant on the venue all items might need to be lifted into the Pit Area rather than wheeled.

Prohibited Items.

No pyrotechnics, discharge of arm, pressurised canisters, flammable liquids and/or hazardous materials are permitted on or around the competition field.

Electronic Equipment

The operator of the electronic equipment (inc. amplification), if any, can be placed inside or outside the sidelines of the competition arena.

It is unlikely that DCUK will provide mains electricity at any venues but if it is made available, the contest organiser will supply one power point in front of the 50 yard line and cannot be held responsible for any disruption of the electricity supply. The contest organiser and/or DCUK can disallow the use of electrical equipment at any time, e.g. if he expects that there are or will be safety issues.

If there is no electricity available, Corps will have to supply their own electricity (batteries, generator, etc.). The sound of a generator must not be heard on the field or in the stand. Corps will be advised in advance IF electricity is scheduled to be made available at each venue.

The Corps is responsible for all equipment used and the safe use of it. The Corps must have all licenses where needed.

All sound checks and adjustments by corps staff must be made prior to the corps performance. Any adjustments made to the sound system must be made by a performing member once the performance has started.

DCUK (in conjunction with DCE) reserve the right to amend any of these guidelines without notice - especially in the interest of safety.

Neither the contest organiser nor any other organisation connected with the contest accepts responsibility in any way for the use of any electricity supply which might be provided. The use of any electricity whether supplied by the contest or by the competing unit will be at the sole risk of the individual corps.

All electronic equipment will be the responsibility of the relevant Corps, once the performance has commenced only performing members may handle the equipment although any generator failures can be handled by Corps staff. Failure of electronic equipment will be the responsibility of the Corps and re runs will not be allowed. With regards to this issue - Judges are advised to assess what they see and hear, not what may be there. If it is obvious there is a problem during a performance a judge may comment under "environmental conditions" section.

National Colours

If the National Colours of any nation are carried or appear on the contest field they must be treated with all due respect.

Competition Timings

- a) The Corps will be scheduled to compete with Open Class Corps having a maximum of 18 minutes and Junior Class Corps a maximum of 12 minutes.
- b) All Corps will be expected to assemble at the designated entrance of the contest area no later than 10 minutes prior to their performance time. The relevant contest official can put the Corps in a holding area within the competition area prior to the performance. The performance time slot will commence once the relevant contest official gives the Drum Major a signal the Corps can enter the contest field and staging area and will stop once the final performer, member of staff or item of equipment has left the contest field and staging area.
- c) Please note the timing will not pause at any time including the asking of the Drum Major 'Is the Corps ready?' The only exception to this will be at the discretion of the DCUK Referee who may pause the timing in exceptional circumstances - for example there is a delay in the Judges being ready to commence their evaluation of the Corps.

Penalties.

It is expected that before penalties are awarded that the DCUK Contest Director/Referee will open discussions with the Corps Director regarding the situation(s) that has arose. If both parties can resolve any problems then this is the desired outcome on all occasions. If penalties are to be issued then these will be done by the Contest Referee only in consultation with the DCUK Board.

Guidelines for Penalties.

- i) 1.0 point for use of each piece of illegal equipment
- ii) 0.1 point per 5 seconds for violating competition times (under review)
- iii) 0.1 point per minute for failure to report at the arena entry at the given time
- iv) 0.1 point per offence (and/or per person) for violating the field entry and/or field exit rules, with a maximum of 1.0 point

A Corps violating any rule, or part of a rule, for which no specific penalty is herein provided, may be penalised, for each such violation, not less than 0.1 point nor more than disqualification, at the discretion of the DCUK appointed Contest Director/Referee.

Corps should also be mindful of health and safety issues at all times and may be required to adhere to requests by the DCUK Contest Director/Referee if deemed appropriate.

Any Corps or Corps Member violating the DCUK Code of Conduct may be penalised by the DCUK Contest Director/Referee and referred to the DCUK Board for further consideration.

Registrations

- a) Corps wishing to be members of DCUK should register from the advertised registration date in December 2014. Registrations can only be made via the on-form form available on the DCUK website (<http://www.dcuk.org.uk>) which must be completed in full - including details of which shows your Corps will be attending.
- b) Payment details including costs & timescales will available to download from the DCUK website.
- c) Registration should be completed by 30th April 2015. Membership by any Corps applying after this date cannot be guaranteed.
- d) Members who have marched for one corps in 2015 will not be permitted to march with a different organisation within DCUK in the same year unless in exceptional circumstances (i.e. moved from one area to another) and have also been formally released by their previous Corps.
- e) Corps will be allowed a maximum of 10 staff "passes" at each show.

Withdrawal from Contests.

Corps have until the 30th April 2015 to advise which DCUK Contests they wish to attend.

Prior to this date Corps can withdraw from competing at a particular contest with no penalty.

From 1st May 2015 the penalty for withdrawing from a DCUK Contest will be a "fine" of double the entry charge for that contest and must be paid to DCUK before the Corps can compete again in 2015. 50% of this fine will be held by DCUK and 50% will be transferred to the relevant Contest Organiser.

Withholding of Registration.

This WOR [Withholding of Registration] is to safeguard Drum Corps from the members that leave a trail of debt and/or unreturned equipment behind them. It is also to protect all parties when a situation of a very severe nature develops between an individual and a DCUK member corps.

Whilst DCUK does not issue formal Passes for Corps members - if monies or equipment are outstanding (and no agreement can be reached between the parties for repayment or collection) then a DCUK registered organisation can request that a DCUK show day "pass/wristband" be withheld from a member of another unit until such time as the matter is settled.

For a pass/wristband to be considered to be withheld then proof of the debt or outstanding equipment must be provided to DCUK together with details of what action has already been taken to recover the monies/items.

Please be aware that it is unlikely that a Pass will be withheld if the person has been allowed to complete a season (i.e. perform at the British Championships event) and the outstanding monies (and possibly equipment if these have been outstanding for a period of time) relate to amounts owed during that season rather than just at the very end.

The WOR is not designed to be a debt collection service and should only be used as a last resort if an agreeable settlement can not be reached.

If there is a situation of a very serious nature then it is expected that the DCUK Board will be informed at the earliest opportunity and presented with the whole true picture. From this a prompt decision will be desired for the best of all parties.

Use of Media (Photos/Videos)

DCUK reserve the right to photograph and record performances for use in DVD production, promotions (inc website and yearbook/programmes), Fan Network and other mediums as approved by the DCUK Board.

Code of Conduct

The Board of Drum Corps United Kingdom (DCUK) and the Trustees of Marching & Performing Arts United Kingdom (MPA:UK) are concerned with the standard of presentation of sanctioned shows and maintaining a healthy, friendly, competitive spirit between members at all levels. Members of all Corps and their supporters are subject to the following Code of Conduct. Breach of this Code could bring heavy penalties, such as disqualification, financial loss, suspension or even loss of membership of DCUK.

1. When participating in the Olympic Retreat and Award Ceremonies, you should show respect to all other units and not part-take in activities which could be deemed to bring your Corps, the Show Sponsor or DCUK/MPA:UK into disrepute!
2. Obscene language, gestures or other actions to display displeasure with the results of the Contest or any other reason will not be tolerated under any circumstances, either on or off the field.
3. Corps members should vocally warn a judge or member of the public of a possible collision or uncontrolled discard of equipment whilst competing to avoid injury.
4. Should DCUK run Critiques - those attending the critiques must be sure of their facts, listen to the recorded material provided by the judges beforehand, and remember judges are mere human beings. They will not discuss other Corps, nor will they allow the critique to be used as a court hearing. Judges are not there to discuss the results, but to improve your performance by offering their advice. It is for you to decide whether to adopt their suggestions. Judges welcome the opportunity for you to discuss your reasons for doing what you do. In the event of a critique being halted due to unprofessional conduct, the Judges Association will inform DCUK in writing of the facts which will be investigated and acted upon and they in turn may involve the DCUK Board or MPAUK Trustees if the need arises.
5. Drum Corps shows survive on money. The seating is for those spectators who have paid to see the show. Corps members are not entitled to a seat in the main stand unless a ticket has been purchased or provided. Please ensure that you do not need to enter the spectators' stand by obtaining items of food, money etc, from your parents before the show commences. Obviously a spectator will not be prepared to support our activity by coming to another show if Corps members interrupt viewing by passing in front whilst another Corps is performing.
6. As a marching member you are one of a cast of hundreds and to organise a show needs everyone to be aware of his/her role. At times it will be necessary for DCUK staff and contest staff to move your Corps from points A to B. Please co-operate without question in order that the show is a success.
7. Drum Corps is a relatively small activity in the United Kingdom and for it to grow and be respected it is necessary that the Board takes action to the benefit of the whole membership. We need to show the public that Drum Corps is something different - not just gimmicks, but a presentation of youth on parade with entertainment at the fore - all done in good taste to a professional standard. YOU are a major part of this building programme.

8. Competition is the lifeblood of the activity but it will only be of benefit when a healthy, friendly spirit of competition exists. Enjoyment is the key word - win or lose we must do without any form of aggravation. It only ruins the day and bitterness will develop which can only end in the Board taking a necessary course in disciplinary action. Friendliness has to exist between directors, staff, marching members and supporters of all Corps. We need to talk to each other and share this wonderful experience of Drum Corps. Remember, you should be able to accept defeat before gaining victory.

9. The conduct of anyone associated with a particular Corps (staff, member or supporter) is the responsibility of the Corps Director whose name is nominated when applying for membership. That person should ensure all are aware that any action, which could bring this activity in disrepute, could, as mentioned above, bring heavy penalties, such as disqualification, financial loss, suspension or even loss of membership of DCUK for themselves and/or the organisation they represent.
